

Clarence Silvia

President & CEO

The Hospital of Central Connecticut & Central Connecticut Health Alliance and Senior Vice President, Hartford HealthCare

Clarence Silvia is president and CEO of The Hospital of Central Connecticut and its parent organization, the Central Connecticut Health Alliance (CCHA), and senior vice president of Hartford HealthCare.

Hartford HealthCare (HHC) is the premiere health care network in Connecticut with 15,000 staff members and $2 billion in net revenue. In addition to The Hospital of Central Connecticut, the HHC system includes Hartford Hospital; MidState Medical Center; Windham Hospital; The Institute of Living psychiatric center; VNA HealthCare, which provides visiting nurse services throughout the state; Clinical Laboratory Partners with more than 80 locations statewide; Hartford Medical Group; MidState Medical Group; Central Connecticut Senior Health Services (part of CCHA), which includes five assisted-living and skilled nursing facilities; Eastern Rehabilitation Network; and two regional behavioral health centers, Rushford and Natchaug Hospital.

The Hospital of Central Connecticut (HOCC) includes the Bradley Memorial campus in Southington and the New Britain General campus. CCHA, which has a total of more than 4,000 staff members, is a system of health care affiliates that provide a wide array of services throughout the region.

Mr. Silvia has more than 30 years of experience in hospital administration and management, including nearly 25 years in Central Connecticut. He began his health care career with the former Bradley Memorial Hospital in Southington, where he served as executive vice president, then later president and chief executive officer. After the merger of Bradley Memorial and New Britain General Hospital to form HOCC, he served as chief operating officer of HOCC and CCHA senior vice president of operations.

Mr. Silvia is a board member of the Connecticut Hospital Association, New Britain Chamber of Commerce, New Britain Health Academy and United Way of Southington. He is also a member of the Town of Southington Emergency Medical Services Committee and a board member of the Manchester Road Race Committee.

Mr. Silvia earned his M.B.A. in health systems and his Bachelor of Science in chemistry from the University of Connecticut.
