& Senior Vice President,
Hartford HealthCare

Lucille Janatka is president and CEO of MidState Medical Center and senior vice president of Hartford Health Care.

MidState, a 144-bed hospital offering a wide range of services, consistently ranks among the top hospitals in the state and nation in quarterly patient satisfaction surveys. Among its numerous awards and distinctions, MidState was named among Solucient's 100 Top U.S. Hospitals for intensive care services; received the Press Ganey "Best of the Best" award for the top 25 hospitals in the United States; was named one of the Best Small & Medium Companies to Work for in America by the Great Place to Work Institute; and received the Mass Excellence Award at the gold level for organizational excellence. MidState also was named one of the nation's "Most Wired" hospitals for the past two years.

Hartford HealthCare (HHC) is the premiere health care network in Connecticut with 15,000 staff members and $2 billion in net revenue. In addition to MidState, the HHC system includes The Hospital of Central Connecticut; Hartford Hospital; Windham Hospital; The Institute of Living psychiatric center; VNA HealthCare, which provides visiting nurse services throughout the state; Clinical Laboratory Partners with more than 80 locations statewide; Hartford Medical Group; MidState Medical Group; Central Connecticut Senior Health Services, which includes five assisted-living and skilled-nursing facilities; Eastern Rehabilitation Network; and two regional behavioral health centers, Rushford and Natchaug Hospital.

Before joining MidState in 1999, Ms. Janatka served as chief operating officer of Waterbury Hospital; vice president of operations at The Hospital of St. Raphael; vice president of administration for Greenwich Hospital; and senior vice president of Meriden-Wallingford Hospital, the predecessor of MidState.

Ms. Janatka is a member of the American College of Healthcare Executives and Connecticut Women in Healthcare Management. She has received numerous awards, including the Community Partnership Award from the Meriden Chamber of Commerce, the Women in Business Award from the Hartford Business Journal, the Special Recognition Award from the Connecticut Women's Hall of Fame, the Athena Award from the Quinnipiac Chamber of Commerce, the Regent's Award from the American College of Healthcare Executives and the Strong, Smart and Bold Award from Girls Inc. of Meriden. She was named to the Connecticut Women's Hall of Fame for her business management, administration and leadership in health care and was among the Top 25 Women in Healthcare named by Modern Healthcare Magazine.

Ms. Janatka holds a Master of Science in nursing administration from Boston College and a Bachelor of Science in nursing from St. Anselm College.
